

COMETE: LIFE BLANC JURY

DOPE TO TOP OF EAGLE SUGAR COMBINE BURNING

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A bill in equity to dissolve the American Sugar Refining Company, known as the Sugar Trust, because it is a monopoly controlled in restraint of trade, was filed today in the United States Circuit Court for the southern district of New York by L. B. Hildreth, Attorney General.

A perpetual injunction is asked to prevent the company from paying dividends or the stockholders from exercising any privileges as stockholders. The petition charges an unlawful combination and conspiracy in dominating and fixing the selling price of raw sugar offered for foreign sale, and in suppressing and influencing the New York, New Jersey, Maine, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri and California.

The petition describes the manner in which the trust acquired control of the sugar business, and how by selling sugar for less than cost the company was able to force the market to close down, driving competitors into selling their interests to the trust.

The sugar trust is organized under the laws of New Jersey, with a capital stock of $10,000,000, with factories at Boston, Jersey City, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco.

Among the defendants named in the proceedings are:

The Franklin Sugar Refining Company, Sprague Sugar Refining Company, Westport Sugar Refining Company, California Sugar Refining Company, George H. Walker, Henry H. Walker, R. E. Shaw, Henry C. Mori, Joseph B. and John B. Spickard, E. D. McMillan and Robert H. Hawley.

The woman who does her shopping from the advertising columns of the AMERICAN knows that everything is ship-shape so far as her list is concerned.

More time and energy is wasted by women who neglect the guidance of the advertising columns than is consumed by women who go about their shopping in the modern way—with the BIG EVENING NEWSPAPER in their shopping bag.

12 MEN CHOSEN TO TRY GIRL IN GLOVER CASE

Selection of the jury was completed a few minutes after 1 o'clock this afternoon at the trial of Hattie Le Blanc in East Cambridge courthouse to-day on a charge of killing Clarence F. Glover of Waltham.

The defendant, a slip of a girl and the youngest one ever put on trial for her life in New England, was brought into court at 9:30. Judge Bond came in two minutes later, court was opened and the first formalities of the trial were under way quickly.

Before three-quarters of an hour had passed the roll of the talesmen had been called, a motion by the defense to quash the indictment had been overruled, and a motion for an interpreter for the defendant had been allowed.

The selection of the jury was then begun. It progressed rapidly. The ratio of selection was about one man chosen as a juror for every seven talesmen examined. The twelfth juror to be accepted was the eighth talesman examined out of the venire of 104. The twelfth juror took his seat in the jury box at 1:20 this afternoon.

The jury includes three farmers, two painters, teamster, clerk, weaver, harness manufacturer, merchant, sawyer and a retired business man.

H. Wintrop Fairbanks, a Sudbury farmer, forty-two years old, the first juror chosen, was appointed foreman of the jury. He was the fifth talesman accepted for jury duty. Judge Bond then addressed the jury briefly. He informed the jurymen that they would have no chance to go home till the trial is finished.

Court was adjourned at 1:15 till 2 o'clock.

GIRL IN COURT IN CHARGE OF MATRON

Hattie Le Blanc entered the courtroom at 9:30 A. M. today, the case against her being heard by Judge Bond. She was escorted by Sheriff Fairbairn, followed by Mrs. Isabelle Warren, the matron.

The trial walked down the left-hand side of the room until they reached the opening in the bar enclosure. Hattie entered first, followed by Mrs. Warren, Sheriff Fairbairn took his place at the sheriff's desk, and Hattie and the matron took seats at the left of the prisoner's cage. Mrs. Warren sat on her left, and Deputy Sheriff Hughes sat on her right.

Hattie appeared very calm. She looked straight ahead with her hands folded. She was dressed in a dark blue dress trimmed with a double row of gold buttons down the front. She wore a new black collar with a white lace trim and a new black skirt with a white lace trim.

PRISONER SEEMS CHANGED

The moment the girl entered the room audible expressions of surprise were heard on every side. She appeared very much changed from the girl who was seen in the same court room months ago.

At 10:15 the judge called Judge Webster Board entered the courtroom, and the case was heard by Judge Board. As soon as he had taken his place at the bench, Court Clerk Robert Fairbanks, son of Sheriff Fairbanks, opened court.

NEW YORK IMPORTER PUT UNDER ARREST

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—United States Marshal Hendon today arrested Clarence A. Walters, son of John S. Walters was arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields and held in $100,000 bail for examination on December 1.

"I don't want any more," says the third man, who knocked out Nelson, will leave New York to-morrow. Moran received several offers to-day to appear on stage and he probably will accept one, Charles Harvey, Moran's manager.

"I think I will be able to take Moran's measure when we meet," said Ad. "I'm glad he won. I have studied his style and believe that he is not hard to get at. In a long fight, I think I will be able to wear him out."

Wolgest declares the beating he gave Nelson last night was a "walkover" and that the Dane will never be able to come back, and that a fight between Nelson and himself would be a "walkover."

THE AMERICAN goes into more than all the other evening papers of Boston combined. It is the Quality Newspaper.

He Is a Good Soldier, But We Don't Think He Will Have the Big Army—Such Things Are Dangerous—Even Kings Are Learning That

He soon found that the army and navy were behind him with a vengeance. They were behind him, shooting off guns and poking him up with sabers, as he and his highly respectable and brave family ran out of Portugal as fast as they could, and TO STAY OUT. His army and his navy are the very powers that put him and the whole disreputable royal crew out of the kingdom and made Portugal into a self-respecting republic.

The day when this country sees enforced military service and a great standing army—may the day never come!—will not be far from the day when the country will also see a very decided change in government and a decided surprise for those who forget that the body of American citizens believe in a real republic, and not in an imitation monarchy.

F. J. HOWARD,
THANKS THE AMERICAN FOR AD-VOCATING FARMERS POST.
 EDITOR BOSTON AMERICAN: For its fearless advocacy of a parcels post. This is a reform demanded by the people of the country. It is the only way to save the farmer from the exorbitant charges of the express companies. I know that the American has introduced it in Congress to pass such a bill, but the express companies are so powerful that they have been able to delay it. I hope it will be passed soon. I am sure it will be never reported.

Henry Cabot Lodge cannot be defeated for re-election by talk alone. There must be concerted action. The members of the General Court must get their instructions from the people whose servants they are. These instructions can be emphasized in a postcard or in a letter. Simply write the following and mail it to your Senator and Representative:

And if your representatives refuse to vote as directed, you can vote against them next year, and every year until they are retired to private life.
